INTRODUCTION

These Statutes recall the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI)'s purposes and objectives and reflect its core values and fundamental principles. They are the FEI's constitution and thereby set forth its organization and the attribution of powers, rights and responsibilities among its bodies and stakeholders, including the National Federations, Athletes, Organizing Committees and the International Olympic Committee.

Together with the rules and regulations enacted further to them, the FEI Statutes represent the codification of the principles and norms that govern horse sport. They provide mechanisms for governance, accountability, action, operation and transparency necessary to further its existence and enable its progress, and for ensuring compliance with the Olympic Charter.

The FEI is headquartered in Lausanne, Switzerland, the Olympic capital.

CHAPTER I      PURPOSES AND PRINCIPLES

Article 1.   Objectives

The objectives of the FEI are:

- 1.1 To be the sole authority for all International Events in Dressage, Jumping, Eventing, Driving, Endurance, Vaulting, Reining, Para-Equestrian and any other forms of equestrian Disciplines approved by the General Assembly;
- 1.2 To establish Statutes, General Regulations and Sport Rules for the conduct of International Events in the FEI Equestrian Disciplines, and to co-ordinate and supervise their technical organization;
- 1.3 To enable individual Athletes and teams from different nations to compete in International Events under fair and even conditions;
- 1.4 To preserve and protect the welfare of the Horse and the natural environment by establishing appropriate codes of conduct;
- 1.5 To promote the highest standards of organization, judging, stewarding, course designing, veterinary and medication control and anti-doping controls of human Athletes and Horses at International Events;
- 1.6 To recognize the interests of all the constituencies of equestrianism including National Federations, Athletes, Owners, Organizers, Officials and sponsors, and to foster their harmonious collaboration;
- 1.7 To act as the international representative body for the National Federations and the FEI Equestrian Disciplines;
- 1.8 To promote equestrianism in all its forms and to encourage the development of the FEI Equestrian Disciplines throughout the world;
- 1.9 To promote understanding and co-operation between National Federations, to give them support and to strengthen their authority and prestige;
- 1.10 To encourage instruction in all FEI Equestrian Disciplines and in horsemanship for recreational purposes.

Article 2.   Principles

- 2.1 The FEI is based on the principle of equality and mutual respect between all National Federations, without regard to race, ethnicity, political opinion or religion.

- 2.2 All National Federations recognize the FEI as the sole authority and governing body for FEI Equestrian Disciplines. The National Federations agree not to become members or recognize or otherwise support any other international organization with a similar purpose except Equestrian Associations recognized by the FEI.
- 2.3 The FEI and the National Federations recognize that each National Federation is the sole authority (besides the FEI itself) for FEI Equestrian Disciplines in the country where it is located.
- 2.4 The FEI is the sole representative of Horsesport at the International Olympic Committee and the International Paralympic Committee where the FEI promotes the Olympic and Paralympic equestrian ideals.
- 2.5 The FEI is committed to the development of equestrian sport through education and commercial initiatives in the best interest of the sport, and through fundraising to fulfil its objectives.
- 2.6 The National Federations agree to comply with, and be bound by, the Statutes, General Regulations, Sport Rules and any Decision issued by the authorized bodies of the FEI in relation to the conduct of international equestrian Events, all of which shall also bind Organizing Committees, Officials, Horse Owners, Persons Responsible, Athletes, team officials and other individuals and bodies involved in FEI Events. National Federations are granted an exclusive license to use, modify, print and distribute as appropriate the documents referred to in this Article, which are FEI property, for the purpose of regulating horse sport within their national territory.
- 2.7 Only those Athletes who belong to a National Federation may take part in FEI Events organized or supervised by another National Federation. All Officials listed as such by the FEI must be members of their respective National Federations.
- 2.8 Candidates for membership to the Bureau and all Standing Committees must be supported by their respective National Federations.

Article 3. Organization

3.1 The FEI is constituted as follows:

- (i) General Assembly;
- (ii) Bureau;
- (iii) Headquarters;
- (iv) Regional Groups;
- (v) Committees, and
- (vi) FEI Tribunal.

Article 4. Name and Headquarters

The International Equestrian Federation ("Fédération Equestre Internationale" or "FEI") is an Association established and organized in accordance with Articles 60 et seq. of the Swiss civil code. The FEI headquarters are located in Lausanne, Switzerland in the building specifically located at 9 Chemin des Délices, 1006 ("FEI Headquarters Building"). The FEI Headquarters Building was gifted outright to the FEI, by letters dated 12 December 2007 and 16 September 2008 from HRH Princess Haya Bint Al Hussein, with the objective that it be used to advance the orderly growth of equestrian sport worldwide by promoting, regulating, and administering humane and sportsmanlike international competition in the traditional FEI Equestrian Disciplines and by helping those Disciplines to evolve in ways that enhance their attractiveness both for the participants and the public, while respecting and furthering the ideals and principles of horsemanship. The FEI Headquarters Building must always house the offices of FEI Headquarters and cannot be sold, leased in an amount that prevents it from being the sole location of FEI Headquarters' offices, or otherwise conveyed in its entirety unless a Resolution of the General Assembly achieved by at least a two-thirds (2/3) majority of all cast votes decides otherwise.

CHAPTER II      MEMBERSHIP

Article 5.    Membership

- 8.8 The Bureau may suspend or exclude a National Federation for persistent violations of the Statutes, a Decision of the General Assembly, or other Sport Rules or General Regulations of the FEI. In cases other than Suspensions for non-payment of Financial Charges, an opportunity to be heard by the FEI Tribunal shall be afforded to the relevant National Federation, and any Exclusion shall only become effective upon ratification by the General Assembly.
